

KSH Resident Long Stay Rack Rates 2025

High Season: 06 January - 01 May | 05 July - 31 August
Low Season: 02 May - 04 July | 01 September - 21 December

*Rates are for an entire suite or villa per stay of 28 nights (4 weeks)
All rates are subject to change without notice.*

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Max PaxPer Unit* |         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|---------|
| 1 Bedroom Penthouse Suites (177 m²)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                      |         |
| 1 King ensuiteSpacious lounge & dining area + kitchen + bathroom with bathtub & shower, lounge terrace with bar & Jacuzzi                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 2                    | 253,000 |
| 2 Bedroom Suites (172 m²)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                      |         |
| 2 Bedroom Bungalow Suite (172 m²)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                      |         |
| 1 King ensuite + 1 Twin with adjacent bathroomSpacious lounge & dining area + kitchen + separate TV area with Swahili day bed + living room & dining terraceBungalow suite includes private plunge pool &amp; garden                                                                                                                       | 4                    | 327,000 |
| 3 Bedroom Suites (209 m²)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                      |         |
| 3 Bedroom Bungalow Suite (209 m²)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                      |         |
| 1 King ensuite + 1 Queen ensuite + 1 Twin with adjacent bathroomSpacious lounge & dining area + kitchen + living room & dining terraceBungalow suite includes private plunge pool &amp; garden                                                                                                                                             | 6                    | 374,000 |
| 3 Bedroom Villas (312 m²)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                      |         |
| 1 King ensuite + 1 Queen ensuite + 1 Twin ensuiteSpacious lounge & dining area + kitchen + living room terrace & dining terrace, roof top terrace & bar                                                                                                                                                                                               | 6                    | 490,000 |
| 3 Bedroom Beach Front Villa (336 m²)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                      |         |
| 1 King ensuite + 1 Queen ensuite + 1 Twin ensuitePrivate plunge pool, outdoor patio, spacious lounge & dining area + kitchen + living room & dining terrace, roof top terrace & bar                                                                                                                                                                   | 6                    | 555,000 |
| *Accommodation is subject to availability. Terms &amp; Conditions apply.*Max Pax Per Unit: maximum number of people per unit including children. No extra beds are provided.One cot per unit can be provided for infants up to the age of 3 depending on availability.                                                                   |                      |         |
| Rates IncludeAccommodation   Housekeeping 3 times per week   WiFi   10% Discount at the RestaurantAll Government Taxes &amp; Levies                                                                                                                                                                                               |                      |         |
| Rates ExcludeElectricity Consumption: invoiced as per usage upon departure   DSTV Package   Replacement Gas BottleAdditional Housekeeping Services: charged at 10% of the daily rack rate of the suite or villaConsumables   Meals   Drinks   Gratuities   Transfers   Extras not mentioned above                            |                      |         |
| Booking Terms &amp; ConditionsFull payment due in advance and is non-refundable.Ksh 50,000 refundable deposit required.Full inventory and electricity meter reading of suite or villa to be carried out prior to occupying the unit and prior to departure.Any breakages or damages will be charged for upon departure. |                      |         |
| Cancellation Policy: Monthly payment in advance is non-refundable under any circumstances.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                      |         |
| Optional Meal Supplement Rates at Le Café Beachside Restaurant &amp; BarBreakfast - Ksh 1,900 per adult   Ksh 1,300 per childHalf Board (Breakfast &amp; Dinner) - Ksh 5,200 per adult   Ksh 3,600 per childFull Board - Ksh 8,800 per adult   Ksh 6,000 per child*Children from 3 to 12 years                          |                      |         |
| Taxi Transfer Rates One-Way To/From Lantana Galu Beach (for up to 5 people)Diani Airport - Ksh 1,500SGR Mombasa Station - Ksh 8,000Moi International Airport - Ksh 8,000*Rates subject to change                                                                                                                        |                      |         |

Resident Extended & Long Stay Rates 2025 Facilities, Services & Amenities

Reception & Concierge Services

At Lantana Galu Beach, our staff is there to make your stay as enjoyable as possible. Our reception is open 24 hours a day and offers a concierge service for bookings of a wide range of services including water sports, excursions, taxis, tuk-tuks and restaurants.

Le Café Diani Restaurant & Bar | Room Service

Situated by the main swimming pool, relax with stunning views of the beach and all-day service at the restaurant, in the gardens or by the swimming pool. Enjoy a divers à la carte and in-house Room Service Menu.

Convenience Shop

Located by Reception, the shop sells a variety of sundry grocery items that can also be ordered in advance. In addition, you will find an array of other local and international items.

Private Chef

A private chef can be sourced for guests upon request depending on availability. Charges for the chef are usually settled directly between guests and the chef.

Weddings & Celebrations

For up to 300 guests, we can cater for weddings and parties with tailor-made menus backed by our team of experienced and dedicated staff renowned for offering exemplary service.

Honeymoon Package

Our Honeymoon Package includes a 30 minute spa treatment for 2, a seafood dinner for 2 at Le Café with a bottle of sparkling wine and flowers in your suite or villa. Minimum 3 nights' stay or 7 nights over Peak Season. Proof of marriage required.

Baby Cots & High Chairs

Baby cots and high chairs for children can be provided at no extra charge upon request and subject to availability.

Beach Side & Garden Swimming Pools

The main leisure pool, a step away from the beach, offers the ideal space for sunbathing, relaxation and leisure which also includes a paddling pool for children. The garden swimming pool offers a quieter area to sunbathe and relax by the water and includes a paddling pool for children.

Fitness & Massage

The Lantana Gym, comprising a large airy room with light parquet floor and mirrors is fully equipped with the latest fitness machines. The gym is open all day for residents to use freely. Adjacent to the gym is the massage & beauty studio offering relaxing treatments and therapies to include: holistic massages, aromatherapy facials, nail therapies, hairdressing and much more.

Business Centre

Located adjacent to the reception, the business centre offers printing, scanning, photocopying and an internet connection.

Barbeques

Barbeque sets can be provided at no extra charge upon request and subject to availability (villas and plunge pool suites only).

WiFi

There are high-speed wireless internet connections which can be accessed at no extra charge throughout the property.

Water Sports, Activities & Excursions

Lantana Galu Beach is within close proximity to Diani's water sport centres. Activities can be booked via reception to include: diving, snorkelling, kite surfing, windsurfing, glass bottom boat, deep sea fishing, dolphin safaris, jet skiing, quad biking, cycling...

