

MUTARA CAMP

Laikipia

Natural Authentic Beauty

Tucked in the valley between the lofty slopes of Mount Kenya and the peaks of the Aberdare Mountains, it is the only guest accommodation on the incredible 20,000-acre Mutara Conservancy, which borders Ol Pejeta conservancy the home to Kenya's largest population of Black Rhino, large numbers of elephant, cheetah, lion, leopard, and plentiful game.

This is where untamed Africa meets true luxury, where iconic wildlife surrounds you, and where personal service and safari chic décor echoes an Africa from days gone by. Bush dining and sundowners out in the wilderness make for magical memories. The landscape is spectacular, the birdlife impressive and the feeling of being totally immersed in nature cannot be beaten.

Why visit Mutara?

- There are only 15 luxurious tents, enjoy cinematic views of the landscape from the comfort of your tent.
- Game viewing is also possible from the comfort of your verandah, overlooking the water hole, a magnet for wildlife during the dry season.
- Get up close and personal with the last two northern white rhino on earth and hear their incredible story
- Guests can explore both Mutara and Ol Pejeta Conservancy with day and night game drives, where expert guides enrich the experience. In addition to the Big Five and many other animals (from cheetahs and jackals to hippos and hyena), the conservancy is home to over 130 black rhinos.
- Guests can take morning or evening horse rides in the 600-acre endangered species enclosure, alongside northern and southern white rhino, Grevy's zebra and Jackson's hartebeest.
- Subject to availability, you can experience the thrill of lion tracking
- Guided bushwalk by an experienced ranger, these interpretive walks bring you up close and personal with the sights, smells and sounds of the African bush.
- Interact with chimpanzee and learn more about the day-to-day care
